

2022 Washington International Competition for Composition

In its 69th year, the WIC provides renowned jurors, offering individual feedback. This year's judges:

CHRISTOPHER THEOFANIDIS

MICHAEL TORKE

KEVIN PUTS

$7,500 in Total Prize Awards

$5,000: First Prize | $2,500: Second Prize

Winning Composition
Performed at the Terrace Theater of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts

Photo By Ron Blunt

IMPORTANT DATES

Application Open: Oct. 1, 2021

app.getacceptd.com/wiccomposition

Application Deadline: Feb. 15, 2022

Winners Announced: Apr. 1, 2022

Performance of Winning Composition:

May 29, 2022, at the WIC Strings Finals

The Terrace Theater of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts

For more information,
contact Mark Simon (Competition Chair), at mark@markgsimon.com

- Open to ages 18-35 (as of February 15, 2022)
- Requirements and eligibility listed at fmmcfoundation.org
- Composition must be a chamber work for 3 - 5 players, for string trio/quartet or piano trio/quartet/quintet, no longer than 8 minutes.

The Washington International Competition (WIC) is sponsored by the Friday Morning Music Club Foundation